Keep Your Beneficiaries Current

Please be sure to keep your beneficiaries current so your benefits (if any) are passed to your named beneficiaries upon your death. You have four options for submitting your beneficiary information:

1. Online FRS Investment Plan Beneficiary Designation form myfrs.com/imageserver/IPBForm.htm (accessible without login).
2. Logging in to MyFRS.com and clicking Investment Plan, then clicking on the “profile”  icon on the top right of the page, then selecting “Beneficiaries” from the dropdown menu.
3. Mailing or faxing an FRS Investment Plan Beneficiary Designation form (IPBEN-1) (myfrs.com/pdf/forms/ip_beneficiary.pdf), to the Investment Plan Administrator.
4. Calling the MyFRS Financial Guidance Line at 1-866-446-9377, Option 4 (TRS 711).

Employer Contribution – Why Is There a Difference on My Paystub vs. What Is in My Account?

Your employer may show the entire employer contribution amount they pay to the FRS on your paystub. But when you check your Investment Plan account, you may notice that the employer amount that is listed on your paystub is not the employer amount that is deposited into your account.

While the entire 3% contribution you are responsible for is deposited into your Investment Plan account, only a portion of the employer contribution that is paid gets deposited. The table at myfrs.com/FRSPro_ComparePlan_Contri.htm shows a breakdown of the contribution percentage by employee and employer.

Be Careful About Granting Outsiders Access to Your SDBA

Be very cautious about providing access to your self-directed brokerage account (SDBA) to any personal financial planner or to any other third-party advisor. This access may include trading authorization for your SDBA, your PIN, or your MyFRS.com User ID or Password. Providing this sensitive account information to a third party carries security risks and, while such agreements are permissible, you are responsible for any arrangement you make directly with the financial planner or other third-party advisor.

If you do grant someone access to your SDBA, be sure you actively monitor your Investment Plan account closely. Review any trades made on your behalf and be sure no unauthorized distributions have been made. You should also be aware of any fees being charged to manage your account. If you have any questions, please call the MyFRS Financial Guidance Line at 1-866-446-9377, Option 2 (TRS 711).

Quarterly Fund Performance Summary

This quarterly fund performance summary gives you a quick update on the performance of the Investment Plan's investment funds. Before you select any investment funds, you should also review the fund profiles, the Investment Fund Summary, and the Annual Fee Disclosure Statement posted in the "Investment Funds" section on MyFRS.com. The asset class descriptions below are general in nature and should not be relied on as your sole source of information regarding these funds.

Asset Class

An asset class is a group of similar investments whose values react in the same basic way to changes in the economy. The Investment Plan's funds are spread across five asset classes: stable value funds, inflation protection funds, bond funds, U.S. stock funds, and foreign and global stock funds. There can be a risk in holding a large portion of your account balance in a single fund or asset class. According to investment experts, a good mix of investments (a strategy known as "diversifying") can help you control your risk and improve your returns. Additional information about investing and diversification can be found on the U.S. Department of Labor's website at dol.gov/agencies/ebsa/laws-and-regulations/laws/pension-protection-act/investing-and-diversification.

Stable Value Funds

These funds invest in fixed income securities and wrap contracts offered by banks and insurance companies. Wrap contracts generally provide a protected return even if the underlying investments decline in value. Stable value funds focus on the preservation of capital, retaining the value of your investment regardless of what stock or bond markets are doing. Stable value funds are not FDIC-insured or guaranteed.

Inflation Protection Funds

These funds invest in a diversified array of assets that may help offset inflationary pressures. These assets include but are not limited to U.S. Treasury inflation-linked securities, commodities, real estate investment trusts, natural resources, and other securities. The funds seek long-term real (net of inflation) returns to preserve the future purchasing power of accumulated assets. You could lose money over short or long periods by investing in this fund, and returns may not keep pace with inflation.

Bond Funds

These funds invest primarily in bonds, which are like IOUs: a company or government agency borrows money and pays it back with interest to the bondholder (the entity making the loan). The quality of a bond is reflected in the credit rating of the company or agency that issues the bond.

The short-term risk of bond funds is relatively low; however, over time, the value of a bond is affected by interest rates, inflation, and other factors. When inflation or interest rates go up, the value of bonds goes down because they pay a fixed rate of interest and the market may see other investments as being more attractive. Therefore, bonds and bond funds don't always protect the value of your retirement savings against inflation.

U.S. Stock Funds

These funds invest primarily in equity shares or stocks issued by U.S. companies. The short-term risk of stocks has been much higher than bonds. However, over longer periods of time, stocks have generally experienced higher returns than bonds, which is one of the main reasons that stocks are typically recommended for retirement investing. Some risk is necessary to achieve long-term investment growth.

Foreign and Global (Foreign and U.S.) Stock Funds

Foreign stock funds invest primarily in equity shares or stocks issued by foreign companies in stock markets outside the U.S. Compared to U.S. stocks, foreign stocks are affected by additional risk factors, such as foreign laws and regulations, differences in accounting practices, political risk (foreign governments are sometimes unstable), and currency risk (differences in the relative value of domestic and foreign money).

Global stock funds invest in both U.S. and foreign stocks. Over the long term, foreign and global stocks have not experienced as high a return as U.S. stocks, but they have provided diversification benefits.

Retirement Date Funds

Each Retirement Date Fund is a diversified portfolio of FRS Investment Plan investment managers and uses an asset allocation concept called "target date funds." The mix of funds in each Retirement Date Fund is based on the amount of time you have before retirement, and the mix gradually changes as you approach retirement. This gradual change follows a careful investment strategy called a "glide path." Each Retirement Date Fund's glide path was developed for the FRS by a global investment consulting firm and a fiduciary to the FRS. Retirement Date Funds don't fall into just one asset class. They invest in multiple asset classes, which makes them good for "one-stop shopping."

Self-Directed Brokerage Account

The self-directed brokerage account (SDBA) does not fall into any single asset class. That's because the SDBA allows you to invest in thousands of different investments in addition to the Investment Plan's primary investment funds. The SDBA is not suitable for all members, and you assume the full risk and responsibility for the investments you select. Additional information on the SDBA is available in the "Investment Funds" section on MyFRS.com.

Strategy

Passively managed funds try to match the returns of a market index (such as the Russell 3000 index) by buying and holding the same securities as the index they're trying to match. Actively managed funds try to beat a market index.

Annual Fees

These are the current fees the fund charges to cover its management, operating, and marketing expenses. These fees are based on a percentage of your account balance and they are deducted from your account balance. The fees shown are based on a $1,000 investment in that fund.

Long-Term Fees

The total fees that would be charged for a $1,000 investment held for 10 years, based on current annual fees.

Performance Benchmark (PB)

A performance benchmark allows you to see how well the fund is doing relative to the performance of the market sector it is trying to beat. Note that index funds are designed to approximate the returns of their benchmarks. Benchmarks do not have costs.

Total Index

A total index is a combination of all the market benchmarks in each market sector and is based on the asset amounts of each fund in each market sector.

Two Ways to Protect Your Retirement Income

Lifetime income guarantees and qualified longevity annuity contracts (QLACs) are two solutions from MetLife that allow you to convert some or all of your Investment Plan balance into payments to you for your lifetime or payments to your survivor after your death.

The quotes below assume a $100,000 Investment Plan balance as of March 31, 2025, for a 65-year-old female. Joint & Survivor payments assume the chosen survivor is a 65-year-old spouse. Your actual quotes may vary based on your individual data and other circumstances. Please note that other payment options and features are available.

	Lifetime Income Guarantee Payments begin at age 65	QLAC Payments begin at age 75
Single Life — lifetime payments to you	$627	$1,447
Joint & Survivor — lifetime payments to you that continue to be paid to your survivor after your death	$546	$1,098
